

2008 CHARLOTTE WINE & FOOD WEEKEND

Charlotte Wine & Food Weekend Profile

Since 1989, the Charlotte Wine & Food Weekend has contributed more than $2.7 million to the greater Charlotte community. Established by a group of civic-minded wine and food enthusiasts who had a vision of creating a series of events to raise money for charity, the Weekend has grown in stature and notoriety, attracting guest winemakers from around the world. Held bi-annually, the goal of the Weekend is to create an educational and fun series of events that is centered on wine, food and charity. Presented by University Volvo, this year's guest list includes top corporate executives from around the country and local community leaders as well as internationally known winemakers and experts.

The 2008 Charlotte Wine & Food Weekend is scheduled for May 7-10, 2008 and will be held in vibrant Uptown Charlotte. For more information visit www.bestwines2008.com to access your exclusive page about this exciting event.
